

The Role of chairman our group

- 1) Leadership
 - inspire and motivate the board and management team to work cohesively toward the company's objectives.
- 2) Strategic Vision
 - a clear strategic vision for the organization is vital.
- 3) Governance
 - oversee the establishment and adherence to corporate policies and procedures
- 4) Board Oversight
 - The chairman fosters an environment of open communication and constructive debate among board members.
- 5) Risk Management
 - The chairman should work closely with the members to implement risk management strategies.
- 6) External Relationships
 - Representative of the financial group to external stakeholders, including investors, regulators, and the public.
- 7) Mentorship
 - Providing mentorship and helping develop leadership talent within the organization is beneficial for long-term success.
- 8) Decision Making
 - lead the board in making important decisions, considering various perspectives and the overall impact on the organization.
- 9) Communication:
 - Effective communication skills are essential for conveying the company's goals and progress to shareholders, employees, and other stakeholders.
- 10) Industry Knowledge
 - Staying up-to-date with the latest industry trends, regulatory changes, and best practices is crucial for making informed decisions.
- 11) Integrity and Ethics:
 - Upholding high ethical standards is paramount, as the chairman's actions and decisions have a significant influence on the company's culture.

NB: In general the chairman must be flexible and dynamic to changing trends every time he must very thoughtfull.